Golf & Tennis Celebration

Greetings from

RABBI YERACHMIEL BENJAMINSON

Executive Director, Jewish Children's Museum

Today is not simply another day on the greens. It is a day in which each of you becomes a teacher; a partner in the Jewish Children's Museum's mission to educate children in the ways of tolerance and social responsibility. As you enjoy your game of golf, feel proud that you are directly influencing the lives of countless children and their families, giving them the opportunity to visit and gain from a Museum of such uniqueness.

In a game of golf, success depends on concentration, not being distracted from the goal. Whether it's hitting a tee shot straight down the middle, or choosing the right club on the green, blasting out of a sand trap, or making sure not to three-putt, every shot has to be made accurately, carefully and thoughtfully. Every shot counts and you have to keep the ball in play.

At the JCM, there are also plenty of decisions that need to be made; daily decisions and decisions that affect the long-term success of our many programs and projects. And just like in golf, every decision requires concentration, thoughtfulness and purpose. Every decision is important. Every shot counts and affects the end result.

Our goal in the JCM is to provide a one-of-a-kind educational experience for children and their families from all backgrounds, an experience so enjoyable and so enlightening that it will open their minds and understanding about Judaism, Jews and our traditions.

Thank you for being our partner in this monumental undertaking. Your achievements on the golf course today are part of a much larger picture—for you are supporting a Museum that produces a sense of moral awareness and goodness that will far outlast our lifetime.

Congratulations to this year's JCM golf honoree, Tang Fan. Thank you for your constant support, which has helped with the great success of the Museum!

Thank you Mark Engel and Matt Engel for running such an amazing outing and for your utmost devotion to the Jewish Children's Museum. Thank you for making this celebration a smashing success!

I am grateful to the entire JCM staff, all who worked tirelessly to see the success of today's outing, especially Mendel Spalter, who put his heart and soul into this event. We look forward to sharing many more happy occasions together, celebrating our children and the generations to come.

Golf & Tennis Celebration

Greetings from

MENDEL SPALTER

Director of Outreach & Development, Jewish Children's Museum

Thank you for joining us at our 17th Annual Golf and Tennis Celebration. We are thrilled to welcome you back!

Today, with the help of G-d, we celebrate a museum that educates and empowers children today, tomorrow and for generations to come.

Since opening 18 years ago, the Museum welcomes 250,000 annual visitors! It reaches across the cultural spectrum, providing children from all walks of life and all religions an inspiring encounter with Jewish culture and heritage. Now that we are open again, they will fully enjoy the interactive exhibits and gain the knowledge to help foster a world of tolerance and understanding.

Congratulations to this year's golf honoree, Tang Fan of JPMorgan Chase! Thank you for jumping in to help make the JCM golf event a great success. We are privileged to honor you at today's golf outing.

My deep appreciation goes to Mark Engel and Matt Engel for their complete dedication to this organization! Your leadership as chairmen, and your successful efforts to bring the outing to ever greater heights, is incomparable and inspiring.

Thank you to the golf committee members, who have dedicated time and effort to help develop the outing in our meetings throughout the year. Your involvement in every step of the event preparations—especially reaching out to and following up with friends and colleagues—is greatly appreciated.

And to all of you here today: Thank you for your friendship and support. It is because of you that we are able to continue doing all of the wonderful programs that the JCM offers. I hope you all have a great day here at the outing!

Please take the time to come for a museum visit. You will thank me!

May G-d bless everyone here today with health, happiness, success and the strength to be able to continue giving and making a difference.

Golf & Tennis Celebration

THE JEWISH CHILDREN'S MUSEUM

The JCM, a $35 million, 50,000-square-foot facility erected by award-winning architects Gwathmey Siegel & Associates, is home to over 150 interactive and multimedia exhibits. It provides children of all faiths and backgrounds a positive perspective of Jewish history and culture, fostering respect and understanding.

This one-of-a-kind museum—which includes a rooftop mini-golf course sponsored by the Engel, Laub, Ellberger, Finkelman and Gupta families, craft workshops, and a game-show studio/theater—is designed with exhibits and programs that both educate and inspire children.

Since opening in 2005, the JCM welcomes approximately a quarter million annual visitors, who come from all walks of life, from varied religious and ethnic persuasions. Special visitors include Hillary Clinton, Rudy Giuliani, Governor Pataki, ambassadors to Ukraine, Sri Lanka and the Dominican Republic, as well as regular visits from Israeli ambassadors.

Our Public School Initiative aims to give public school children the opportunity to visit the museum free of charge. Feedback from schools that have benefited from this project is overwhelmingly positive, confirming that the museum gives universal, valuable messages of respect, social responsibility, and tolerance to the leaders of tomorrow.

The Jewish Children's Museum exhibition Voyage Through Jewish History includes technological and multi-media elements that have greatly expanded the scope of the museum, as well as increased its capacity by approximately 30%. Recently, JCM launched a program called Museum in a Box, which brings content to classrooms all over the globe.

The museum is a living memorial to Ari Halberstam, a tenth-grade-student who was killed by a terrorist on the Brooklyn Bridge in 1994.

Congratulations to the

for all that they do.

Keep up the amazing work!

The Schneur Family Foundation

Why did the golfer organize a charity golf outing for the Jewish Children's Museum?

Because he believed in "driving" Jewish education and wanted to "tee" up a brighter future for the kids!
