Golf & Tennis Celebration

Greetings from

RABBI YERACHMIEL BENJAMINSON

Executive Director, Jewish Children's Museum

Today marks a meaningful occasion—not just on the greens, but in our shared mission to educate, uplift, and inspire. As you enjoy your round of golf, take pride in knowing that your participation directly supports the Jewish Children's Museum and its ongoing efforts to promote tolerance and social responsibility among children and families.

In golf, success depends on focus, precision, and strategy. Every swing requires careful thought, and every decision—no matter how small—affects the outcome. The same is true at the Jewish Children's Museum. Every initiative, every exhibit, and every educational experience is designed with purpose and accuracy to spark curiosity, foster understanding, and celebrate Jewish culture.

Your involvement in today's event goes far beyond the game—it's a commitment to shaping a more empathetic and informed future. Because of your support, we are able to continue building bridges between communities and enriching the lives of countless children.

We are proud to recognize this year's honoree, Ira Gordon, whose dedication and generosity have made a meaningful impact on the Jewish Children's Museum. Your support is helping to ensure our mission continues to flourish for years to come.

We would also like to express our heartfelt thanks to Mark Engel and Matt Engel for their exceptional efforts in organizing this event. Your commitment and leadership have played a vital role in making today's outing a success.

To the team at the Jewish Children's Museum, your passion and perseverance are what keep our mission thriving. Special thanks to Mendel Spalter, whose devotion to this outing has been unwavering.

We look forward to many more meaningful milestones together, as we continue to educate, connect, and inspire the next generation.

Golf & Tennis Celebration

Greetings from

MENDEL SPALTER

Director of Outreach & Development, Jewish Children's Museum

Welcome to the 19th Annual Golf and Tennis Celebration—a day where sport, friendship, and purpose come together in support of a mission that touches countless lives. It's a joy to see familiar faces and new supporters alike gathered to strengthen a cause that continues to make a lasting impact.

With gratitude to G-d, we come together today to champion the Jewish Children's Museum, an institution that serves as a dynamic center for education, dialogue, and cultural understanding. Each year, the Museum opens its doors to over 250,000 visitors, offering children from all walks of life a hands-on opportunity to explore Jewish history, values, and traditions in a way that fosters empathy and mutual respect.

I am proud to recognize Ira Gordon as this year's honoree. His deep commitment to the Museum's mission and generous support help ensure that the values we celebrate today—tolerance, learning, and community—are passed down to future generations.

I also extend my heartfelt appreciation to Mark Engel and Matt Engel. Your leadership, passion, and tireless work have elevated this event year after year. The strength of today's celebration is a direct reflection of your vision and dedication.

To our incredible Golf and Tennis Committee, thank you for your hard work and attention to every detail. Your efforts behind the scenes ensure this day is not only successful, but also meaningful for everyone involved.

And to all of you—our guests and supporters—thank you. Your partnership makes it possible for the Jewish Children's Museum to continue shaping young minds and hearts with programs that build bridges and inspire understanding.

If you haven't yet visited the Museum, I warmly invite you to do so. See firsthand the impact your support is making—it's something truly special.

May G-d bless you all with continued health, happiness, and the strength to keep making a difference in our community and beyond.

Golf & Tennis Celebration

THE JEWISH CHILDREN'S MUSEUM

Designed by award-winning firm Gwathmey Siegel & Associates, the Jewish Children's Museum is a landmark $35 million, 50,000-square-foot facility featuring over 150 interactive and multimedia exhibits. Welcoming more than 250,000 visitors each year, the museum offers children of all backgrounds a hands-on, immersive experience with Jewish history and values—fostering mutual respect and understanding in an increasingly diverse world.

Signature exhibits like the Game-Show Theater, Voyage Through Jewish History, and the new "Escape from Egypt" escape room (coming end of 2025) engage children in unforgettable educational adventures.

The museum also offers popular programs such as craft workshops, audio tours, and Town Hall Meetings, where students interact with civic leaders. The rooftop mini-golf course—generously supported by the Engel, Laub, Ellberger, Finkelman, and Gupta families—adds to the fun, all while reinforcing key lessons.

At the heart of the museum's mission is the Public School Initiative, providing free access for thousands of schoolchildren annually. Additional outreach includes the global "Museum in a Box" program, extending the museum's content to classrooms worldwide.

A new pavilion campaign is now underway, expanding the museum's narrative to highlight Jewish contributions, resilience, and the fight against antisemitism.

The new "Escape from Egypt" is a thrilling, fully immersive escape room that drops visitors into ancient Egypt. Teams will solve puzzles, crack codes, and race to escape Pharaoh's grip in this exciting, educational adventure. This exhibit will help further our mission and reach, with a new and exciting angle on the already amazing Jewish Children's Museum Experience.

The Jewish Children's Museum stands as a living memorial to Ari Halberstam, a 16-year-old high school student who lost his life in a terrorist attack. His legacy continues to inspire the museum's vital work of education, remembrance, and unity.

LEARNING FROM EACH OTHER

We proudly support the Jewish Children's Museum and applaud its commitment to provide an innovative setting for all children to learn from cultures different than their own.

Congratulations to Don Gelestino and Bill Jebaily, this year's honorees.

One paper 6 reasons to subscribe

- 1 The weekly print edition – For over half a century, America's largest Jewish independent weekly has brought you incisive editorials and op-eds, world famous columnists like Rebbetzin Esther Jungreis and Rabbi Jonathan Sacks, as well as the largest classified section and dining guide, and more Torah columns than any other Jewish newspaper.
- NEW 2 The new e-Edition – Every page at your fingertips from anywhere in the world. FREE for all print subscribers.
- NEW 3 The new, weekly pullout magazine section – A 20-page, all-color insert filled with Torah, hashkafah, interesting articles and great stories, along with recipes, games and puzzles for the whole family.
- 4 Building Blocks – This bi-annual magazine supplement is the go-to resource for family members and professionals involved in the care of children and adults with disabilities.
- 5 Health & Living – Four times a year this supplement is filled with up-to-the-minute health news and advice you can use and trust.
- 6 Weekly Listings in the Classified and Dining Guide Sections – Whether it is to find a house, apartment, job or just someplace to eat, this is the go to location for many of our readers.
